

ОБЗРЕВАТЕЛЬ OBSERVER

SCIENTIFICALLY-ANALYTICAL MAGAZINE

It is published since 1992

Contents

(16+)

"Globalisation project": the role and place in the international historical process

5

V. Pavlenko, V. Shtol

In the second part of the article the authors point out the main focus on the expansion of the different world projects competition, the reason of which is an active willing of the western oligarchic subject of globalization to stop the project "Modern", thus putting an end to the history of mankind. The alliance between the Western Post-modern and the Countermodern of the Islamic fundamentalism is opposed to a new Russian project, which comprises the achievements of the Soviet era along with the continuity of the traditional projects, formed during a 500 years of confrontation with Western civilization.

Key words: globalization, Russia, Hegel, Leontyev, civilization, identity, civilizational approach, civilizational project.

About the authors: PAVLENKO Vladimir Borisovich - Doctor of Political Science, member of the Academy of Geopolitical Problems;

SHTOL Vladimir Vladimirovich - Doctor of Political Sciences, Professor, Head of church-state relations MIGSU RANHiGS under the President of Russia, Professor at the Central European University in Skalica (Slovakia).

Relations between Russia, the USA, and China in the context of the latest foreign policy concept of Russian Federation in 2013

29

G. Drobot

The article considers the relations between Russia, the U.S. and China in the context of the recent foreign policy Concept of Russia 2013. The author comes to the conclusion that the Concept bears in itself all the shortcomings of the previous Concept, 2008 and also contains additional contradictions. First of all, this concerns the absence of a clear position in relation to the ligaments between the USA and China, which plays an increasingly important role in international relations.

Key words: Russia, USA, China, the foreign policy Concept of 2013, the foreign political thought of Russia.

About the author: DROBOT Galina A. – Doctor of Political Science, Professor of the Faculty of the Global Studies at Lomonosov Moscow State University (MSU).

The Problem of the Damage Compensation for the “Soviet occupation” in Russian-Lithuanian Relations

39

M. Alexandrov

The article analyses the issue of compensation claims for the Soviet “occupation” extended by Lithuania towards Russia. The author examines the historical background of the issue, its theoretical basis and practical implementation. The article shows the politicized nature of the issue and its connection to the contemporary European politics as well as its role in bilateral Lithuanian-Russian relations.

Key words: Lithuania, Russia, Baltic region, damage, compensation, Soviet, USSR, annexation, European Union, PACE, Council of Europe.

About the author: ALEXANDROV Mikhail – PhD in Political Science and International Relations, Head of the Division of the Baltic States, Institute for CIS Studies, Moscow.

Counter-terrorist measures: the Russian vector

48

V. Zhuravel

The article analyses the development and functioning of the system of counter-terrorist activity in the Russian Federation in recent years from the view-point of strengthening the national security of the State. The emphasis is made on internal and external origins of terrorism in Russia. In conclusion the author proposes a set of counter-terrorist measures.

Key words: Terrorism, the National Anti-terrorist Committee, the national security.

About the author: ZHURAVEL Valery – Doctor of pedagogical sciences, assistant professor, winner of the All-Russia award “Journalists against terror” 2008, 2011.

Russian and Polish approaches to international and European security strategies

59

M. Bogucka

The article attempts to reflect possibilities for cooperation between Russia and Poland based on the common interests to ensure national security for the two countries separately and European region as one.

Key words: national security, international security, National security strategy of the Russian Federation, National security strategy of Poland, NATO, missile defense.

About the author: BOGUCA Monika – PhD student, MSU, Faculty of Political Science.

A Gangster State: Kosovo in World Politics

67

E. Ponomareva, G. Rudov

The article analyzes the main causes of the phenomenon of a Gangster State on the example of the “Kosovo Republic” reveals the role of mafia structures in the organization of drug trafficking and the maintenance of the criminal nature of the new political structures.

Key words: Kosovo, Gangster State, world politics, Albanian mafia, drug trafficking.

About the authors: PONOMAREVA Elena – doctor of political science, professor of Comparative Politics Department of MGIMO, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation;

RUDOV Georgij – doctor of political science, professor, Diplomatic Academy, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation.

Political aspects of Iraqi energy sector transformation in 2003-2013

77

A. Chuvarayan

Article analyzes regional energy conflict in Iraq by using historic perspective of Western-Iraqi relations since 19th century. What are the main reasons, which led to a more than a century-long conflict between the USA, and later NATO, and Iraq to the war, and why mechanisms of early-warning and preventive diplomacy failed? How Iraqi energy (oil) sector was transformed after the 2003 War when Temporary Coalition Administration overtook the power in Iraq? Author highlights issues of energy sector transformation in short-term and its privatization in a long-term.

Key words: energy security, energy conflict, Iraq, transformation of oil sector, preventive diplomacy, NATO.

About the author: CHUVARAYAN Alexandra – PhD Candidate Diplomatic Academy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Russian Federation. Senior expert of Strategy and Innovation Division, JSC “RusHydro”, MSc. University of Blekinge, Sweden.

Private military and security companies in Russia: to be or not to be?

90

A. Mikhaylenko

The article deals with the factors which influence the development of private military and security sector. Both necessities and possibilities of Russia in development of private military and security companies are analyzed.

Key words: private military and security company, foreign policy instrument, International Code of Conduct for Private Security Service Providers, mercenaries.

About the author: MIKHAYLENKO Alexander N. – Doctor of Political Sciences, professor of foreign policy at the Department of national security, Russian Presidential Academy of National Economy and Public Administration.

New means for rejuvenation and active longevity

100

V. Nekrasov, N. Nekrasova, M. Plyashkevich

Health preservation and prolongation of active life have always been actual topics for the mankind. In the article points out the discoveries which nowadays can make a significant effect on medical practice giving the mankind new means for creation of opportunities for healthy and long-lasting active life.

Key words: rejuvenation, longevity, form field, Earth's Form Field, biospheric dissymmetry, fine field medicine, fine field homeostasis; biospheric pathogenic zones, left and right biological type of person.

About the authors: NEKRASOV Vladimir – Prof., Doctor of Biology, Academician of RANS, RAMTS, EANS, President of NP «MATEZ»;

NEKRASOVA Natalia – doctor of regenerative medicine, head of the Department of Medicine, active member of NP «MATEZ»;

PLYASHKEVICH Mira – engineer, medical physicist, research, scientific secretary NP «MATEZ».

Events and People

1953 – Hopes and Disappointments

114

A. Isakov

Based on the documentary materials, personal observations and the author's participation in a number of events of this period, the article analyzes and traces the relationship with modernity of the most important events in the life of the country after the death of Joseph Stalin on March 5, 1953.

Key words: personality cult, collective leadership, “Khrushchev thaw”, retreat of socialism.

About the author: ISAKOV Anatoly Isaakovich – the doctor of military sciences, the professor, the participant of the Great Patriotic War, the professor of legal high school.